MISSION STATEMENT

† Holy Family Catholic Church is a spiritually and socially active parish. Rooted in the Word of God and nourished by the Eucharist, we celebrate the life of our Lord Jesus Christ by proclaiming the Good News and providing spiritual growth, support and service with love. Founded by Italian immigrants a century ago, today our parish continues the tradition of extending a loving, caring and affirming welcome to all who join us as we Continue Our Journey of Faith.

† La Chiesa Cattolica Santa Famiglia e' una parrocchia socialmente e spiritualmente attiva. Radicata nella Parola di Dio e nutrita dall'eucarestia, celebriamo la vita del nostro Signore Gesu' Cristo proclamando la buona novella e provvedendo crescita spirituale, supporto e servizio con amore. Fondata un secolo fa' da immigranti italiani, oggi, la nostra parrocchia continua la tradizione di estendere un amorevole, caro e riconoscente benvenuto a tutti coloro che con noi continuano e condividono il nostro cammino di fede.

† Ang simbahang katoliko ng banal na pamilya ay isang masiglang parokya sa espirituwal at ugnayang panlipunan. Nakaugat sa salita ng diyos at pinalusog ng eukaristiya, ipanagdiriwant namin ang buhay ng ating panginoong hesukristo sa pagpapahayag ng mabuting balita at paguudulot ng paglago sa kabanalan, paggabay, at mapagmahal na paglilingkod. Itinatag ng mga dayuhang italiano may isang-daan taon na ang nakakalipas, ngayon ang aming parokya ay patuloy sa pag-ugit ng tradisyon ng mapag-aruga, mapagkalinga, at mapagkilang pagtanggap sa mga sumapi saamin habang patuloy sa paglalakbay sa panaampalataya.

Dear Parishioners:

I could easily entitle this reflection Lessons Learned from a Hurricane because the fury of Hurricane Sandy and the widespread devastation, especially in our own state, is still so fresh in our minds: the loss of life, destruction of property, power outages, long gas lines and the many difficulties that resulted, are all, too painfully, part of our experience.

Yet signs of hope have also emerged - - the concern of neighbor for neighbor, the inspiration of a number of our own parishioners and the generosity of local businesses to prepare meals for those who are without power (see Stewardship Corner), the decision of the Financial Council to donate the proceeds of the Comedy Club, on November 9th, to the victims of the hurricane through Catholic Charities.

In today's first reading, the prophet Elijah assures a poor widow and her son, who were facing another type of crisis, a famine, when he says, "Do not be afraid...", and proved to them that if they were generous with their meager resources, God would be generous in return and He was. In today's Gospel, Jesus turns His attention to a poor widow who, in His words, gave more to the temple treasure than many rich people who gave large sums, "for they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty (in giving two small coins) has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

From the devastation of a hurricane we can learn the same and many other lessons of the generosity and faith of people. As I spoke with some of our parishioners who had damage, in some cases, extensive damage to shore homes, they reflected more on the greater loss that others experienced rather than on their own loss and spoke convincingly of their trust that God would see them through it all - - a message that also impressed me about lessons from a hurricane named Sandy.

Peace,
Msgr. Paul

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury." (Mark 12:43)

Notice that in the story of the widow's mite Jesus did not reach into the treasury box and give the widow back her coins. If He did not exempt her from giving, surely He expects each of us to share what we have to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, and promote the work of the Church here on earth.

Forming
Consciences

Contacting Your Elected Officials

*In 2011, the USCCB Administrative Committee reaffirmed Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship and authorized the USCCB president and the nine chairmen to sign and release an Introductory Note to preface the statement.

In Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U.S. Catholic Bishops urge all Catholics to make their voices heard in the public square. You can communicate with your elected officials by writing (letters or emails), making phone calls, and visiting them. Visit house.gov and senate.gov to find your elected officials and then follow the tips below.

Writing

A thoughtful, personal letter that provides a clear and forceful argument can be a powerful form of communication with your elected officials. Follow these tips when writing letters:

- Include a clear title that summarizes the exact action you are requesting. For example: "Protect Victims of Trafficking: Support S. 1301!"
- In the first paragraph, state your request and summarize the reasons in 2-3 sentences.
- In the second and third paragraphs:
 - Provide support for your arguments.
 - State why you personally care about this issue. For example, are you involved in your parish's pro-life or anti-poverty ministries?
- Conclude your letter by re-stating what you want your elected officials to do and thanking them for their time.

Mailed letters may take several weeks to arrive to Congress. Most Congressional web sites include "Contact Us" forms. You may also consider sending a FAX, especially if time-sensitive.

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops makes it easy for Catholics to make their voices heard by providing a web form with suggestions that Catholics can send to their elected officials with just a click of the mouse. Visit the "Issues and Action" section of www.usccb.org to access this web form and for more tips on letter-writing.

Contact your diocesan social action office, pro-life office, or State Catholic Conference for additional electronic advocacy opportunities.

Making Phone Calls

Another important way to make your voice heard is to call your elected officials.

Normally the best time to telephone members of Congress or state legislators is when you want them to take immediate action—for example, when there is an upcoming vote and there isn't enough time for an e-mail or a visit. Here are some tips on what to say on the phone.

- Ask to speak to the legislative aide who handles your particular issue. Write down his/her name.
- Mention the number and/or name of the bill (if applicable) and how you want your legislator to act.
- Be concise - don't expect to get into an in-depth discussion. Address the key issue with a few brief supporting points.
- Identify yourself, hometown, and phone number so that the legislator can be sure you are a constituent and can get back to you.
- At the end of the call, ask for a commitment to a course of action, and ask the legislative aid to repeat your request back to you.

Making a Visit

Taking the time to visit your elected officials can send a powerful message about what you care about as a constituent. Here are some tips for your visit:

Before the Visit

- Research your legislator's voting records, committee assignments, and positions.
- Visit your elected official's website for information about how to schedule your visit. The scheduler will likely want to know what issue(s) you want to talk about so you can meet with the appropriate staff member.
- Prepare background information about the issue(s) on which you are advocating. Plan to talk about no more than three issues per visit.

During the Visit

- First introduce yourself and your role in the community, then give an overview of what you want to discuss.
- Next, present the issues, discussing each one separately. Provide background information and human interest stories to give a face to the issues.
- If you are asked questions for which you do not know the answers, tell the member or aide that you will get back to him or her and then do it.
- Conclude by asking the member or aide to take some concrete action: cosponsor specific legislation; talk to legislators on the relevant committee(s); etc. Ask for his or her commitment to you specific request.

After the Visit

- Write a thank you letter or email in which you summarize the discussion.
- Finally, don't forget to follow-up on any commitments you made during the visit.

Contact your diocesan social action office or State Catholic Conference to see if a Catholic lobby day is being organized where you live!

Issues for Advocacy

In Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, the U.S. bishops lift up various issues of different moral weight and urgency.

Read the Introductory Note and nos. 89-90 to learn more about issues that affect human life and dignity. For example:

- Abortion and other threats to life and dignity
- Efforts to force Catholic ministries to violate their consciences or stop serving those in need;
- Efforts to redefine marriage and undermine marriage as between one man and one woman and an institution essential to the common good;
- An economic crisis which has devastated lives and livelihoods, and the duty to respond in ways that protect the poor and future generations;
- The failure to repair a broken immigration system in ways that respect the law, human rights, the dignity of immigrants and refugees, families, and the common good.
- Wars, terror, and violence which raise serious moral questions about the human and moral costs of force.

NOMINATION FOR STEWARD OF THE MONTH

When deciding to nominate a person for the Steward of the Month Award, we should consider the following: The TIME that this person dedicates to parish activities, community events, personal time with others in need of assistance, spiritual aid and/or companionship. The TALENT that this person offers to the parish and community, willingly and lovingly. The TREASURE this person offers to the parish and community. Has he or she accepted the divine call to extend God's blessings on those less fortunate through personal sacrificial giving?

These are important factors to consider when proposing a person for nomination. Often a prayer to the Holy Spirit is helpful, too, in discerning the name for nomination.

Please fill out the nomination form and return it in an envelope marked "Stewardship Committee" to nominate a parishioner as Steward of the Month.
