18th Sunday in Ordinary Time 2014-A

My brothers and sisters in the Lord!

In the feeding of the five thousand, Jesus is recalling the generosity of God at a time when the Hebrew people were wandering in the desert, when the Lord caused manna, the bread from heaven, to fall each night for the people. It is not an accident that this Gospel miracle of the feeding takes place as St. Matthew tells us, “when evening came.” Jesus was also taking care of the physical needs of the people who faithfully followed Him to a “lonely place.” This phrase, “lonely place,” is the same word as “desert” in the Greek or igins. It is also interesting that this miracle takes place right after Jesus hears of the death of John the Baptist. It is almost as if Jesus turned the occasion into a mourning-feast of His great herald, cousin and friend.

We also notice in this passage that Jesus tells His disciples to feed the people; in doing so, He is making the disciples co-workers in His own ministry, the prefiguring ministerial priesthood which He will found on Holy Thursday. The twelve baskets of scraps remaining also symbolize the fullness of the new people Jesus is calling together, which recalls God’s calling of the twelve tribes of Israel.

It is here that Jesus is preparing His disciples for the even greater self-giving which He will carry out on the cross, and the memorial, sacrificial meal which we call the Eucharist. Jesus feeds us not with earthly food but with His very self: the body, blood, soul and divinity. The story does not end here because by sharing of the Eucharistic banquet we are participating, not only in Christ’s death, but also in His resurrection and, therefore, our own as well. All the sacraments are participation in the death and resurrection of Jesus but, most especially, in Baptism and the Eucharist. In essence, food, death and religion are profoundly linked, but are transformed in the Gospel and the Risen Lord. Jesus feeds us in the wilderness which this world can be, but we can also bear in mind that our home is the promised land of eternal life with the Blessed Trinity and all the saints and angels.

Peace,
Fr. Joe

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

“Why spend your money for what is not bread; your wages for what fails to satisfy?”
— Isaiah 55:2

Of all the ways we are asked to be generous, giving our money can be the most challenging. God understand this. Remember though that we are called to be generous with all our gifts, including our money. We are called to give from our “first fruits” and not from what is “leftover.”

Our Italian Festival is coming up...
Thursday, September 25, 6-10 pm
Friday, September 26, 6-11 pm
Saturday, September 27, 4-11 pm
Sunday, September 28, Noon-9 pm

The first thing we need to do is get those raffle books on the street so we have a hefty Super 50/50 jackpot in September!

The books are always available at the rectory. Tickets are $2 a piece and there are 10 tickets to a book. Please have a few books on hand for summer gatherings — graduation parties, barbecues, block parties – we need to get that prize going!

If anyone has BRAND new religious items to donate - rosaries, rosary bead cases, jewelry, statues, etc. - for our Religious article table we would sincerely appreciate that! But they must be brand new for us to sell. Call Gina: 973-751-4187, if you have any questions.

MARIA SS. ADDOLORATA
OFFERING BLANKET
Several years ago, we introduced the “Maria SS. Addolorata Offering Blanket” to the Italian Festival. It has proven to be a beautiful acknowledgment of our Sorrowful Mother. A donation on the Offering Blanket brings hope to the ill, is in memory of the deceased, or is offered for a very special intention. On the 2nd Friday of each month, a special Italian Mass in honor of The Devotees of Maria Santissima Addolorata is offered for their intentions at 7:00 P.M.

During the festival, the blanket will be on display in our Italian Café for the entire 4 days. The presentation of the blanket will take place on Saturday evening, during the candlelight procession following the 7:00 PM Mass.

If you wish to take part in the Offering Blanket, you may submit your donation to Holy Family Church along with the intention you wish for the blanket. Kindly make your check payable to Holy Family Church, but mark the envelope MEMORIAL BLANKET. As always, the blanket will be a magnificent tribute to Our Lady of Sorrows. For more information, please call Gina Tamburri at 973-751-4187.

Many volunteers are needed to make our 21st Annual Italian Festival successful. If you would like to meet new people, form lasting friendships and have a lot of fun, consider giving a few hours of your time. In the meantime, if you would like to help out during the day arranging the garages, shopping for supplies, taking inventory, or whatever else may arise, give Gina Tamburri a call as she can always use a helping hand! 973-751-4187.

TENT SPONSORS
If you wish to sponsor a tent at the feast, the cost is $100.00. As you are aware, this booth sponsorship helps the parish pay the very costly rental fee of the tents. The committee has beautiful signboards that are placed in each tent with your name or company name on it. Thank you for your help.

Yes, I wish to sponsor a tent.
