SUPER 50/50

The first thing we need to do is get those raffle books on the street so we have a hefty Super 50/50 jackpot next Sunday!

The books are available at the rectory. Tickets are $2 each and there are 10 tickets to a book. Please have a few books on hand for social gatherings — parties, card games, showers, – we need to get that prize going!

Religious Articles

If anyone has BRAND new religious items to donate - rosaries, rosary bead cases, religious jewelry, statues, etc. - for our religious article table we would sincerely appreciate that!

But they must be brand new for us to sell. Call Gina: 973-751-4187, if you have any questions.

MARIA SS. ADDOLORATA OFFERING BLANKET

Several years ago, we introduced the “Maria SS. Addolorata Offering Blanket” to the Italian Festival. It has proven to be a beautiful acknowledgment of our Sorrowful Mother. A donation on the Offering Blanket brings hope to the ill, is in memory of the deceased, or is offered for a very special intention. On the 2nd Friday of each month, a special Italian Mass in honor of The Devotees of Maria Santissima Addolorata is offered for their intentions at 7:00 P.M.

During the festival, the blanket will be on display in our Italian Café for the entire 4 days. The presentation of the blanket will take place on Saturday evening, during the candlelight procession following the 7:00 PM Mass.

If you wish to take part in the Offering Blanket, you may submit your donation to Holy Family Church along with the intention you wish for the blanket. Kindly make your check payable to Holy Family Church, but mark the envelope MEMORIAL BLANKET. As always, the blanket will be a magnificent tribute to Our Lady of Sorrows. For more information, please call Gina Tamburri at 973-751-4187.

SETTING UP!

We will be setting up for the feast all this week and help is always needed! During the day, there will be a lot of prep-work going on. If you can spare a few hours to help out, it would be appreciated!

Tuesday and Wednesday nights are the finishing touches—tables and chairs to be set up and covered with tablecloths; Tent Sponsor signs to be hung; all the stands must be stocked, etc. Bringing your own “tools” is helpful; staplers, duct tape, hammer, etc.

Please call Gina to arrange for the hours you can spare; 973-751-4187

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time 2014 A

My brothers and sisters in the Lord,

The parable of the laborers in the vineyard is one of the most difficult ones for our modern day to appreciate. With our concerns for social justice, it is impossible to read the parable except through the eyes of work relations. We would easily ask, "How can it be just that those who have worked for only an hour are paid the same as those who have worked through the heat of the day?" Our reaction is on the side of those complaining. It is the same kind of complaint that we might hear from people who have led good lives and are hit with health issues, economic problems, as well as personal tragedies. The easy reaction is to immediately say, "Why is God doing this to me? It isn't fair."

However, what Jesus wants to reveal through His use of parables is not what is fair and what isn't fair but rather, what enhances the presence of the kingdom of God and what blocks it. In today's parable, the generosity of the master is contrasted with the miserliness and envy of the workers. The kingdom of God is a place of forgiveness and generosity, not a place of greed or envy. The parables face us with a tough challenge. We might ask ourselves, "Can we understand and can we live the way God lives? Are we going to be ever caught in the vicious and closed circles created by envy, jealousy and greed?"

Envy and greed are not just addictions or illnesses. They create an obstacle in our way of understanding God and in our freedom to follow God's guidance as we experience them tugging at our hearts and at our decisions. We are invited to deepen our appreciation of what is asked of us as followers of Christ. Each one of us is tested in different ways. The tests, however, have a similar aim in view. We are asked to free ourselves from the patterns that close down our openness to God and to others and to favor patterns that increase that openness.

Envy and greed are self-centered. They lead us to want as much as possible for ourselves and to think that what another has is something that we should have. It is true that world view often comes from our own sense of emptiness. Not having our own sense of fulfillment, we look in other places to fill in that gap, but the gap isn't filled. Instead, we can look to the Lord and His teachings because His grace is a way to move forward. The move to a greater generosity of spirit and delight, in what others achieve and have, is a major step forward in human and spiritual growth. If we can accomplish that, we can break the vicious circle of envy and greed and become fully alive in the kingdom of God.

Peace,
Fr. Joe

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

"So the last will be first and the first last" - Matthew 20:16
You've heard the saying "it's not where you start but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Through our gratitude and generosity we help each other get to Heaven!

MIRACULOUS MEDAL NOVENA

The Miraculous Medal Novena is every Monday at 7:00 PM, in the Mother Cabrini Chapel. Novena consists of devotional prayers to the Miraculous Medal and St. Jude, and the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. On national holidays, Novena prayers are offered at 8:45 AM, just prior to the 9:00 AM Mass.

Flowers at a funeral are a lovely but expensive way of showing your love for a deceased relative or friend. Consider a Memorial Candle in the Chapel of Our Lady of Sorrows instead. A candle memorialized with your loved one's name will burn for a year in the Chapel. It is $100 and you will receive a beautiful card to present to the family. Call the rectory if you are interested.
