28th Sunday in Ordinary Time A-2014

My brothers and sisters in the Lord!

Today we hear about the wedding feast at Cana where Jesus, His mother and His disciples were celebrating with neighbors. Jesus worked His first miracle that day, changing water into wine to save a young couple from embarrassment. Later on, when His public life had caught the attention of those in power, Jesus dined at the house of a local dignitary and taught the guests about humility, mainly because they were arguing about power and position. The Pharisees confronted Jesus for eating with sinners, which gave Him a chance to say that He had come for the sake of sinners and not for the virtuous. But it was at the Last Supper that Jesus did those stupendous things which still affect us deeply; the transforming of the bread and wine as well as washing the feet of His disciples. And then, at the first century version of a barbecue on the beach, Jesus gave Simon Peter the task of feeding His lambs and His sheep. Eating and drinking in company was an important ingredient of spreading the Good News that is accepting and giving hospitality with a generous heart.

What Jesus was doing was echoing Isaiah's vision of the hospitality of God at the end of time, which we heard about in today's first reading. Heaven will be like the party to end all parties. The banquet is open to all peoples, not just for the Jew or, for that matter, the Christians. In the Gospel parable today, St. Matthew tells us that "the wedding hall was filled with guests." God is going to remove the mourning veil that covers us, namely our guilt, our anxiety, our depression, our negativity. God is also going to wipe away the tears from every cheek; no one will come to the party and nurse his or her misery. We shall exalt and rejoice that God has saved us. The benign and forgiving face of the Father is going to beam down the table and that's what heaven will be like. It won't be like a party with caviar, where the host is showing off and the guests are afraid to eat. Rather, the kingdom of God will be relaxed, companionable and reassuring.

Each time we celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we hear the words of the priest at the Communion Rite, "Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." The party theme penetrates even here. The meal we share at Holy Communion is a preparation for the glory and the joy of paradise. Jesus was once sacrificed for our sake, like a lamb being offered up in the Old Testament. We re-enact this each time we come to Mass. But at the banquet in the kingdom, we shall see Him in His true colors, our Risen Lord, and this will make us incredibly happy. Sometimes we are severe in our faith, or the details of it. Maybe that's the way we were brought up. We should always remember that belonging to the Church on earth is a dry run for belonging to God's family in heaven and we should never let anything pull us down, lest we forget how to be joyful. Let us reflect on the words of today's Psalm, "My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing."

Peace,
Fr. Joe

Canonization of Blessed Ludovico di Casoria

It is with great joy that we join the Community of the Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth as they await the upcoming Canonization of their Founder, Blessed Ludovico di Casoria, on November 23, 2014. Our Sisters at Holy Family Day Nursery continue to be a great gift to our parish and we are grateful for their presence and nurturing our children in preschool. Six of our sisters will be traveling to Italy for this celebration. If anyone would like to help defer the cost of their expenses, you are welcome to send your gift directly to the Mother House, c/o Mother Lilly Perapadan F.S.S.E., Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth, 499 Park Rd., Parsippany, NJ 07054, or you may drop your donation off at the Nursery on Franklin Avenue. Checks can be made payable to Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth. We are grateful for all the Sisters do for our parish, especially in caring for the altar linens at Church and their gift of music at the 8 A.M. Mass each Sunday.

BLESSED LUDOVICO OF CASORIA

Priest of the Franciscan Friars Minor

Founder of the Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth (1814 - 1885)

Blessed Ludovico of Casoria (Archangelo Palmentieri) was born on March 11, 1814, in Casoria, Italy. He entered the Friars Minor in 1832, taking the name Ludovico. Shortly after his ordination, he was appointed to teach philosophy and mathematics to the young members of the Order at the Franciscan Friary of St. Peter in Naples.

In 1847 he had a mystical experience which he later described as a cleansing. He dedicated his life to the poor and the infirm, establishing a dispensary for the poor, schools for the African children, an institution for orphans, the deaf and the speechless, and other institutes for the blind and elderly. He once said, "The love of Christ wounded my heart." This love prompted him to great acts of charity.

To help continue these works, he established the Brothers of Charity and the Sisters of St. Elizabeth.

Ludovico wrote a spiritual testament which described faith as "light in the darkness, help in sickness, blessing in tribulations, and paradise in the crucifixion, and life amid death." He was beatified in 1993 by Pope John Paul II and will be canonized on November 23, 2014 in Vatican City by Pope Francis.

"St. Francis is the living image of Jesus Christ. It is necessary to imitate him in virtue, in poverty of spirit, in separating from the world and in the love for Jesus Christ." Blessed Ludovico of Casoria

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

“And my God will supply every need of yours...”

- Philippians 4:19

God really does provide for those that are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

As you may have noticed, we recently installed on our property a donation bin for Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Newark.

All of the clothing, shoes, and small household items that you generously donate will be sold and the proceeds will be used to support the many programs for the needy as provided by Catholic Charities.

Tax receipts are available, either paper or to your smartphone. With the end of summer, this is an ideal time to clean out that closet.

Catholic Charities will report periodically to us on the amount of money generated from our donation bin. If you have any questions or would like to schedule a larger pick up, please call toll free @ 877-343-3651.

NOMINATION FOR STEWARD OF THE MONTH

When deciding to nominate a person for the Steward of the Month Award, we should consider the following: The TIME that this person dedicates to parish activities, community events, personal time with others in need of assistance, spiritual aid and/or companionship. The TALENT that this person offers to the parish and community, willingly and lovingly. The TREASURE this person offers to the parish and community. Has he or she accepted the divine call to extend God's blessings on those less fortunate through personal sacrificial giving?

These are important factors to consider when proposing a person for nomination. Often a prayer to the Holy Spirit is helpful, too, in discerning the name for nomination.

Please fill out the nomination form and return it in an envelope marked "Stewardship Committee" to nominate a parishioner as Steward of the Month.
