29th Sunday in Ordinary Time A-2014

My brothers and sisters in the Lord!

In today's Gospel we are told that Jesus' enemies want to trap Him. Jesus is tested by the Herodian's and Pharisees with the trick question: "Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" If Jesus forbids paying taxes to Rome, He would be charged with going against the Roman Emperor. If He supports the pagan taxation, He will antagonize the people who want to be free of the Roman law. We notice He is not being asked to give a detailed analysis of church-state relations. He reacts by asking for a coin with which the tax is paid. He is given a denarius, which has the image of Caesar on it. Jesus Himself has no such coin, but they and we presumed that they would have used it to pay the tax. Our Lord silences them by telling them to give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar. And then He states the more important principle: to give back to God what belongs to God which, in essence, is everything. Jesus recognizes that there are some areas with which the state can deal but only as long as these areas do not contradict God's law.

At the beginning of His public ministry Jesus announced the kingdom of God. He then proceeded to show how God's rules are such areas as education, health and money. Jesus was a great teacher, He healed the sick and He challenged the corruption of the Temple and its bankers. Inevitably this led, as He already knew it would, to His death because He was undermining the power of political authorities.

We can see that Jesus is not proposing any great theory of Church and state but rather He is countering His enemies with a quick-witted reply. Jesus was a prophet who did not teach that one should concentrate only on spiritual matters. But neither was He searching for worldly power. He explained that His kingdom is not of this world but neither is it out of this world. He knew that His rule would upset those who oppressed His teaching on, for example, law, health and wealth.

In our modern world, these tensions have not gone away. The church is still called to witness the kingdom of God. We have been baptized into Christ and so we share in His kingly and prophetic office. We may neither over-spiritualize our faith and ignore injustices, nor over-politicize our faith and ignore Jesus' warning about worldly power. In our present world there are great numbers of Christians who are living in situations where to witness against Caesar leads to persecution. Each one of us is called to discern, not ignore, what the state or government is doing in our lives and making judgments. There are so many situations, not just those of education, health and wealth, where those who are poor and defenseless can be neglected and need support. On many occasions we can render unto the government what is due but there will also be times when we are called to have the courage to refuse its demands and to witness that Jesus teaches us to render to God what is God.

Peace,
Fr. Joe

Canonization of Blessed Ludovico di Casoria

It is with great joy that we join the Community of the Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth as they await the upcoming Canonization of their Founder, Blessed Ludovico di Casoria, on November 23, 2014. Our Sisters at Holy Family Day Nursery continue to be a great gift to our parish and we are grateful for their presence and nurturing our children in preschool. Six of our sisters will be traveling to Italy for this celebration. If anyone would like to help defer the cost of their expenses, you are welcome to send your gift directly to the Mother House, c/o Mother Lilly Perapadan F.S.S.E., Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth, 499 Park Rd., Parsippany, NJ 07054, or you may drop your donation off at the Nursery on Franklin Avenue. Checks can be made payable to Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth. We are grateful for all the Sisters do for our parish, especially in caring for the altar linens at Church and their gift of music at the 8 A.M. Mass each Sunday.

BLESSED LUDOVICO OF CASORIA Priest of the Franciscan Friars Minor

Founder of the Franciscan Sisters of St. Elizabeth (1814 - 1885)

Blessed Ludovico of Casoria (Archangelo Palmentieri) was born on March 11, 1814, in Casoria, Italy. He entered the Friars Minor in 1832, taking the name Ludovico. Shortly after his ordination, he was appointed to teach philosophy and mathematics to the young members of the Order at the Franciscan Friary of St. Peter in Naples.

In 1847 he had a mystical experience which he later described as a cleansing. He dedicated his life to the poor and the infirm, establishing a dispensary for the poor, schools for the African children, an institution for orphans, the deaf and the speechless, and other institutes for the blind and elderly. He once said, "The love of Christ wounded my heart." This love prompted him to great acts of charity.

To help continue these works, he established the Brothers of Charity and the Sisters of St. Elizabeth.

Ludovico wrote a spiritual testament which described faith as "light in the darkness, help in sickness, blessing in tribulations, and paradise in the crucifixion, and life amid death." He was beatified in 1993 by Pope John Paul II and will be canonized on November 23, 2014 in Vatican City by Pope Francis.

"St. Francis is the living image of Jesus Christ. It is necessary to imitate him in virtue, in poverty of spirit, in separating from the world and in the love for Jesus Christ." Blessed Ludovico of Casoria “Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God.”

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

“Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s.” — Matt. 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren’t “owners” of anything; we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second.
