Feast of the Holy Family 2015-B

My brothers and sisters in the Lord!

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. As we look at the Christmas Manger, we realize that the life of the Holy Family was not as easy as one might think. There were many challenges, many moments of despair as well as heartache. This week we hear in the readings, the stories and devastations caused by King Herod in the killing of the many innocent children as he searched to destroy the Child Jesus. It is no different in our world today, with the many acts of terrorism, the many innocent lives lost at war as well as the horrors of abuse within families and neighborhoods.

Simeon and Anna only recognized the Holy Family because God was active in the situation. It took faith to see beyond a newborn baby to the crucifixion and the resurrection. Simeon needed to have courage to warn Mary that her joy would also have pain and Joseph was given the responsibility of something he had never anticipated. According to tradition, Joseph died before Jesus began His adult ministry, and so he was no longer around to support Mary when she would be in most need of his quiet strength and fidelity.

My brothers and sisters, family life may not be a bed of roses and every family will have problems to face. Every family will know troubles and sorrows. Sometimes families break apart because the problems become too many, or the challenges of living together become too great. At such times they may be in special need of our loving concern and support. But there can be an unbreakable bond, a unique friendship and an unflinching strength that carries a family through good times and bad. Every family has moments of great joy as well as moments that are difficult, when it is only the love between them that gives the courage they need as they face things they never expected and would have never wanted. Mary and Joseph gave Jesus the foundation that prepared Him for Calvary as well as for Easter Sunday. May their example and prayers bring our families courage in bad times as well as the joy in good times. We pray in a special way, through the intercession of the Holy Family, that our faith be strengthened and that we may always respect the gifts that each of us bring in forming the Parish Family of Holy Family.

HAPPY FEAST DAY TO OUR PARISH COMMUNITY OF HOLY FAMILY!

This past week, I received a message from Archbishop Hebda, Coadjutor Archbishop of Newark, who has graciously accepted our invitation to celebrate Mass with us. I invite all to come and welcome Archbishop Hebda, on New Year's Day, at our 10:00 A.M. Family Mass.

Peace and prayers as well

As we begin the New Year of 2015!

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

“...as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must forgive.”

- Colossians 3:13

Forgiveness – one of the hardest things for people to do. It’s amazing how long we can hold a grudge or be angry with someone. As we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family, take this opportunity to give the gift of forgiveness to someone - maybe someone in your family, maybe a friend, maybe a co-worker or neighbor or, maybe yourself. Pick up the phone or text someone right now.

Christian believers and their pastors from numerous denominations, along with many pro-life leaders, will gather for the 21st Annual National Memorial for the PreBorn and Their Mothers and Fathers on Thursday, January 22nd at DAR Constitution Hall, 1776 D St., NW (18th & D St.), Washington, DC, from 8:30-10:30 A.M. This will be the premier prayer event marking the tragic commemoration of Roe vs. Wade. We will gather in repentance and grief, but also in hope-filled, joyful determination and unity to bring an end to abortion once and for all! Let’s fill Constitution Hall with thousands of believers to show the nation that pro-life people are not going away, no matter how long the battle or how powerful the enemy! The prayers and message of this service will certainly convey that, and you won’t want to miss out on the inspiration.
