2nd Sunday in Easter – 2015 - Divine Mercy Sunday

My Brothers and Sisters in the Lord!

Today we celebrate the Divine Mercy of our Lord Jesus. As we reflect on this day, we should call to mind God's great love for us, sending His only Son into the world to journey with us and share in the joys, as well as the sufferings, that we are all challenged with in this life. We should remember that He did not deny Jesus, Mary and Joseph, as well as all of the saints, a share in suffering in this world. So we have no right to be angry with God or blame Him when things happen to us and around us. Rather, we should be praying for the strength and perseverance to face the challenge, to grow with it and learn from it so that we might help others in their journey. This is what the Divine Mercy of Jesus is all about. The sharing of that gift of love for each other and for the honor and glory of our God who loves us infinitely

Today's Gospel message is a simple and direct invitation from Jesus to Peter, Andrew, James and John to, "Come and follow me." There was no hint as to where they were going or what would be in store for them and there were no promises, yet there was no hesitation or regrets at letting go or leaving their boats or families behind. We see ordinary people with no special training called to the extraordinary task of bringing the knowledge and love of God to the whole world. God chooses the weak of the world to confront the strong and the simple to confound the wise.

The mission of preaching, teaching and healing, which Jesus began in Galilee, is now the responsibility of the Church. The call of the apostles is still the model of discipleship and, in our generation, we have both the privilege and obligation to accept His invitation. As followers of Jesus, we are called to be servants of God and to struggle in the work of enlarging the church by spreading the Good News of the kingdom. This is not possible unless we have begun living the new life we have received at the moment of our baptism. Coming to faith is a gradual process and life-long struggle which is a lesson for each generation to learn. It involves all the ups and downs of life and turning from a life of sin and self-centered existence to one of obedience to God's call. We need the constant light of Jesus which gradually illuminates the way ahead. It is a light that grows brighter as we become more familiar with the Gospel. As we journey into the Easter Season, we stand at a point of opportunity. It is Jesus alone who gives us life and hope and we should not be side-tracked in the work of our own conversion by earthly pursuits. We are in God's hands. The power of God is released upon the world by men and women like us, in every walk of life, who put the spiritual welfare of the community before selfishness in everyday life. God's great love for us and the Divine Mercy of Jesus is the central core of this. We must always trust in His great love for us.

Peace,
Fr. Joe

Memorials

Many of our families are looking for various memorials for their loved ones. Since a great number of families have chosen mausoleums as the final resting place for their loved ones, and flowers cannot be left in the mausoleum chapel, why not consider "In lieu of flowers..." at a wake to make donation for our parish restoration towards the replacement/repair of the roof or steps of the Church in memory of your loved one. Many thanks for your consideration.

ARCHDIOCESAN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The Archdiocese of Newark is, once again, preparing the annual tradition of honoring those couples in the Archdiocese who will be celebrating five, twenty-five and fifty years of Christian marriage in the year 2015. The Masses will be celebrated by Archbishop John J. Myers in the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark. Any questions or concerns should be addressed to the Office of Family Life Ministries at 973-497-4323.

The Archdiocese would love honoring every couple in the Archdiocese, who is deserving of such recognition, to be present at the appropriate liturgy. The presence of a large number of couples will give favorable witness to the strength and stability of Christian marriage in today's society. Interfaith couples are welcomed!

THANK YOU FROM GINA AND ALEX

On behalf of the Enrico Tamburri Memorial Foundation, we would like to express a special thank you to all the priests for showing their support by attending our Beef Steak Dinner fundraiser and especially to Fr. Joe Ferrara for his kind words and saying Grace.

Our thanks and appreciation to all the businesses that contributed to our event, to the people who made monetary donations, donated gifts, baskets and baked homemade desserts. To all those who helped with set up and clean up, and especially to all the adults and children who provided us with a special treat by entertaining us dressed in traditional 19th Century Italian style costumes.

A heartfelt thank you to DJ Robert Frannicola of Unlimited Entertainment for making our event so enjoyable. A good time was had by all !

For the past 22 years of fundraising The Enrico Tamburri Memorial Foundation has been very successful in raising money for ill children and their families. As always our first priority is to financially support these children and their families; and because of your generosity, this year we raised $16,000.00. Were able to make a $2,500.00 donation toward the repair of Holy Family Church's roof, give a $1,000.00 scholarship to a student at Good Shepherd Academy and make a donation to one of very own parishioners who lost their home due to a fire.

All of this was possible because of your generosity, help and support. Our next Beef Steak Dinner will be on March 19, 2016. SAVE THE DATE and we look forward to seeing you.

Thank you and God Bless you.
Happy Easter/Buona Pasqua
Gina and Alex Tamburri
