MISSION STATEMENT

- Holy Family Catholic Church is a spiritually and socially active parish. Rooted in the Word of God and nourished by the Eucharist, we celebrate the life of our Lord Jesus Christ by proclaiming the Good News and providing spiritual growth, support and service with love. Founded by Italian immigrants a century ago, today our parish continues the tradition of extending a loving, caring and affirming welcome to all who join us as we Continue Our Journey of Faith.
- La Chiesa Cattolica Santa Famiglia e' una parrocchia socialmente e spiritualmente attiva. Radicata nella Parola di Dio e nutrita dall'eucarestia, celebriamo la vita del nostro Signore Gesu' Cristo proclamando la buona novella e provvedendo crescita spirituale, supporto e servizio con amore. Fondata un secolo fa' da immigranti italiani, oggi, la nostra parrocchia continua la tradizione di estendere un amorevole, caro e riconoscente benvenuto a tutti coloro che con noi continuano e condividono il nostro cammino di fede.
- Ang simbahang katoliko ng banal na pamilya ay isang masiglang parokya sa espirituwal at ugnayang panlipunan. Nakaugat sa salita ng diyos at pinalusog ng eukaristiya, ipanagdiriwant namin ang buhay ng ating panginoong hesukristo sa pagpapahayag ng mabuting balita at paguudulot ng paglago sa kabanalan, paggabay, at mapagmahal na paglilingkod. Itinatag ng mga dayuhang italiano may isang-daan taon na ang nakakalipas, ngayon ang aming parokya ay patuloy sa pag-ugit ng tradisyon ng mapag-aruga, mapagkalinga, at mapagkilang pagtanggap sa mga sumapi saamin habang patuloy sa paglalakbay sa panaampalataya.

The Epiphany of the Lord - 2016

My brothers and sisters in the Lord!

Today we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord which proclaims that Christ is the Messiah, the glory of God who is like breaking into the night and who gives new hope and rebirth to the people who walk in darkness. We come to the crèche, look into the manger, and see the Baby Jesus lying in the feeding place for the animals. Jesus is our food for life and, with childlike wonder, we see the Three Kings gathering to worship this child, bringing their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. They are gifts of great extravagance fit for a king and fit for God.

The gift of myrrh is a sign of suffering as well as the anointing of the dead, and so the shadow falls over this scene of joy and hope. The fulfillment of the life of Jesus will be poured out on the cross so that we can have life with our sins forgiven. The cross stands over this scene of Christmas and is a promise for us of victory, hope and rebirth. Another shadow falls over the scene; a long shadow reaching from Jerusalem and the court of Herod, who lives in the fear of a newborn king who will replace him and overthrow his throne. Herod's desire to speak to these travelers from the east was not out of curiosity or love but full of malicious intent. The recently completed Temple of Herod, glistening in the sun with its golden roof, at that time was one the many wonders of the world to be admired and marveled at by many pilgrims to the city of Jerusalem. A child who would be king of the Jews might threaten Herod's power and his corrupt and oppressive reign. From Bethlehem there comes a new king and a new shepherd of Israel. The Magi worship and adore the Christ child in all His fragility, vulnerability and innocence. Jesus becomes the new temple before whom we bow down and worship.

My brothers and sisters, after this hectic celebration of Christmas, today's feast helps us grasp more deeply the gift that has been given to us and all people who desire to hear His message of hope. Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, challenges us to share the joy of the Gospel with people we meet. Maybe we can do so by helping a friend find new meaning in the celebration of Christmas. Perhaps we might have a new desire to speak of the birth of Jesus. We might also be able to love in a difficult situation. The celebration of the Epiphany invites us to find a new path, as well as a new route, as we begin this New Year. The Gospel message itself calls upon us to be more open to people who are fragile or vulnerable, weak or poor, and in this way we might be able to share our hope and joy with others.

Friends, I take this opportunity to once again thank everyone who has made our Christmas celebration a truly joyous and spiritual journey. On behalf of Fr. Mauro, Fr. Francesco and myself, we are especially grateful for the many homemade goodies, gift baskets and monetary gifts which we received during this Christmas Season. Many cards were received signed with only first names and no other information - - please accept this message as our heartfelt thank you and, most especially, for your continued love and support of our parish of Holy Family. May the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph bless you abundantly in a special way as we begin the New Year 2016.

Peace and prayers always,

Fr. Joe

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

"...the Gentiles are co-heirs, members of the same body, and co-partners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel." (EPHESIANS 3:6)

Today we celebrate that Christ came to all of us, not just the Hebrews. He made us all one body with Him. We were all given different gifts; we all have different yet equally valuable roles to play in the Body of Christ. Ask God how He wants you to use your gifts so that we may all "be one" in this Year of Mercy.

LITTLE MINUTES

Little drops of water, little grains of sand, make the mighty ocean and the pleasant land;
so the little minutes, humble though they be,
make the mighty ages of eternity.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the next few weeks, if you were to stroll around Prague or Budapest or Kraków, you might see curious graffiti scratched in chalk over some doorways: “20 + C + M + B + 16.” The families dwelling behind those doors have celebrated the Epiphany door blessing. They have gathered before the feast-day meal, probably after Mass, and the head of the family has traced the sign of the cross on the piece of chalk. Standing on a ladder, the leader traces the numbers for the new year, and the letters C M B for Christus Mansionem Benedicat, Latin for “May Christ bless this house.” The letters also point to the names that tradition has assigned to the mysterious magi, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar—although scripture tells us nothing of their number, their country, or their names.

The blessing speaks of journeys ended and journeys begun at the doorway, and prays that all journeys be as satisfying as was the magi’s. It prays that the house beyond the door have the quality of love and peace that the magi marveled at when they at last arrived in Bethlehem. In some countries where the Soviet Union tried to impose a harsh atheism, the vigor of this household custom survived all efforts to erase Christian customs. In the years of struggle, the chalked blessings were a pervasive sign of defiance, and now in the light of new freedoms, they are a sign of the resilience of our tradition and the fulfillment of the magi’s quest for meaning and peace.

LOOKING IN THE RIGHT PLACES

“Appearances can be deceiving,” as the saying goes. As we celebrate the epiphania, the “appearing” of the eternal Word of God on earth, this is still true.

What rapturous foresight must have filled Isaiah as he wrote the words we hear today. How, for four hundred years, they must have filled the hearts of the people of Israel with hope for the day when God’s glory would shine on them. How deceived some must have felt when the glory of God came to them in the lowliest and humblest of human lives.

We have many expectations about how the divine presence will appear among us. But we can also set ourselves up, through these expectations, to miss the divine glory when it truly appears. We get caught up in looking for the star, forgetting that the star is not the divine sign, the babe is. It may take a persistent journey for us to come upon the true appearance of God’s glory in our lives: Jesus Christ.
