STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

“See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are.” (1 JOHN 3:1)
During this season of giving, let us remember the most important gift we have received – being children of God. As God’s children, it’s important that we express our love for others as well. Tell your spouse, children and other family members and friends that you love them, frequently.

This bulletin had to be submitted several days in advance of our usual deadline due to the Christmas/New Year holiday schedule. Therefore, the collection for Sunday, December 20th, and Sunday, December 27th, will appear in the January 3rd bulletin.

FAMILY LIFE

Family life is sacred, but it is not without trial. Perhaps this is the most important message we can glean from today’s readings. If Jesus, Mary, and Joseph can trip up sometimes—can disconnect—then we shouldn’t find it surprising when such things happen to us as well. And parents everywhere (children, too) can probably relate to—and take some solace in—the Gospel’s account of Mary and Joseph after Jesus explained why he stayed behind in the temple. They heard his words, Luke tells us, “But they did not understand what he said to them” (Luke 2:50). Amen! Nevertheless, Jesus does go back home with them, and continues to thrive under their care.
