The Great Mission

During this Easter season we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. This event impels us, as Christians, to announce this glorious Good News to the whole world. Many Catholics throughout the world will be responding by embarking on a Great Mission to announce the Gospel to the whole world in the streets and public spaces. Our Holy Father Pope Francis has always encouraged the faithful to go to the public squares to announce the Gospels, announcing the love of Christ to everyone and the good news that death has been vanquished and the gates of Heaven are now open! Here in the Archdiocese of Newark as well, many of our brothers and sisters in Christ will go out to public parks and streets to announce this Gospel. In Nutley, parishioners will be proclaiming, "Christ risen!" on five consecutive Sundays from 4:00 to 6:00 PM, April 30 through May 28. The location for these events will be near the playground in Yanticaw Park, just off Centre Street. Brothers and sisters, there is no greater news than to announce the love of God and Jesus Christ's victory over death, and eternal life being offered freely to all. Everyone is invited to attend and I encourage you to pray that this mission produces much spiritual fruit.

2nd Sunday in Easter – 2015 - Divine Mercy Sunday

My brothers & sisters in the Lord:

Today we celebrate the Divine Mercy of our Lord Jesus. As we reflect on this day, we should call to mind God's great love for us. God sent His only Son into the world to journey with us, to share in the joys, as well as the sufferings, that we are challenged with in life. We should remember that He did not deny Jesus, Mary or Joseph, nor any of the saints, a share in suffering in this world. Therefore, we have no right to be angry with God or blame Him when things happen to us or around us. Rather, we should be praying for strength and perseverance to face the challenge, to grow with it and learn from it so that we might help others in their journey. This is what the Divine Mercy of Jesus is all about: the sharing of that gift of love for one another and for the honor and glory of our God who loves us infinitely.

Our Lord's Mercy grants forgiveness of all sins and punishment on the Feast of Divine Mercy. Mercy for even the most hardened sinners!

Today's Gospel message is a simple and direct invitation from Jesus to Peter, Andrew, James and John, to "Come and follow me." There was no hint as to where they were going or what would be in store for them, nor were there any promises, yet there was no hesitation or regrets of letting go or leaving their boats or families behind. We see ordinary people with no special training called to the extraordinary task of bringing the knowledge and love of God to the whole world. God chooses the weak of the world to confront the strong and the simple to confound the wise.

The mission of preaching, teaching and healing, which Jesus began in Galilee, is now the responsibility of the Church. The call of the apostles is still the model of discipleship and, in our generation, we have both the privilege and obligation to accept His invitation. As followers of Jesus, we are called to be servants of God and to struggle in the work of enlarging the Church by spreading the Good News of the kingdom. This is not possible unless we have begun living the new life we have received at the moment of our baptism. Coming to faith is a gradual process and life-long struggle which is a lesson for each generation to learn. It involves all the ups and downs of life and turning from a life of sin and self-centered existence to one of obedience to God's call. We need the constant light of Jesus which gradually illuminates the way ahead. It is a light that grows brighter as we become more familiar with the Gospel. As we journey into the Easter Season, we stand at a point of opportunity. It is Jesus alone who gives us life and hope and we should not be side tracked by the work of our own conversion by earthly pursuits. We are in God's hands. The power of God is released upon the world by men and women like us in every walk of life who put their spiritual welfare of the community before selfishness in everyday life. God's great love for us and the Divine Mercy of Jesus is the central core of this. We must always trust in His great love for us.

Peace,
Fr. Joe

Memorials

From time to time, parishioners inquire about memorials for their dearly departed loved ones. Many families have chosen mausoleums for the final resting place of their loved ones and flowers cannot be left in the mausoleum Chapel. Kindly consider "in lieu of flowers" at a wake and request a donation to our parish restoration fund. These donations would be a blessing to help pay off the cost of our new Church skylights and replacement of the Church steps. Thank you for your consideration.

Tuesday, May 16, 7:30 P.M.

We are honored to announce that Archbishop Cardinal Joseph William Tobin will celebrate a Deanery Mass here at Holy Family! Everyone is welcomed to join us!

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

"Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you.'" John 20:19

Are you good at making people feel welcome? When you meet someone new, a new neighbor, a new work colleague, a new parishioner, do you make them feel at home? Many of us can probably do a much better job at this. When we make people feel welcome, we make them feel like they are included instead of being excluded. A simple "hello" and a smile goes a long way.
