MISSION STATEMENT

- Holy Family Catholic Church is a spiritually and socially active parish. Rooted in the Word of God and nourished by the Eucharist, we celebrate the life of our Lord Jesus Christ by proclaiming the Good News and providing spiritual growth, support and service with love. Founded by Italian immigrants a century ago, today our parish continues the tradition of extending a loving, caring and affirming welcome to all who join us as we Continue Our Journey of Faith.
- La Chiesa Cattolica Santa Famiglia e' una parrocchia socialmente e spiritualmente attiva. Radicata nella Parola di Dio e nutrita dall'eucarestia, celebriamo la vita del nostro Signore Gesu' Cristo proclamando la buona novella e provvedendo crescita spirituale, supporto e servizio con amore. Fondata un secolo fa' da immigranti italiani, oggi, la nostra parrocchia continua la tradizione di estendere un amorevole, caro e riconoscente benvenuto a tutti coloro che con noi continuano e condividono il nostro cammino di fede.
- Ang simbahang katoliko ng banal na pamilya ay isang masiglang parokya sa espirituwal at ugnayang panlipunan. Nakaugat sa salita ng diyos at pinalusog ng eukaristiya, ipanagdiriwant namin ang buhay ng ating panginoong hesukristo sa pagpapahayag ng mabuting balita at paguudulot ng paglago sa kabanalan, paggabay, at mapagmahal na paglilingkod. Itinatag ng mga dayuhang italiano may isang-daan taon na ang nakakalipas, ngayon ang aming parokya ay patuloy sa pag-ugit ng tradisyon ng mapag-aruga, mapagkalinga, at mapagkilang pagtanggap sa mga sumapi saamin habang patuloy sa paglalakbay sa panaampalataya.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time A-2017

My brothers and sisters in the Lord!

In today's Gospel Jesus revealed an interesting paradox which is that great learning or high IQ is no guarantee of knowing the deepest truth. Jesus revealed to us the heart of the Father and knowledge of this is something that comes to us as a pure gift. We do not have to be at the highest levels of knowledge to come to this awareness. Instead, the Father, in His great generosity, makes it known to whomever He wishes, in the power of the Holy Spirit, through Jesus. Those to whom the Father reveals His truth and those who respond to it are rightly called "children" because they have become members of God's family.

At the core of Jesus' ministry is a compassion that reflects the tender love at the heart of the Godhead. Our Lord's invitation for all those who are struggling to come to Him is an active one. Jesus holds out His hand, drawing us to Himself, so that we may follow in His footsteps. Putting on Christ is not burdensome. However, following Jesus and growing in His discipleship requires that we know that we are connected and part of Him. Then, learning from Jesus and revealing in His gentle and humble heart, we can start to appreciate how the vision of the kingdom in today's first reading is not only a real possibility but something already in our midst and something worth working for.

Coming to Jesus and knowing His loving care is an amazing experience. We have, perhaps, all heard stories about people being down and out and then meeting Jesus in the midst of their desperation. We do not have to look far for such witnesses. There are many accounts of people who have encountered the tender mercy and compassion of God.

My brothers and sisters, it is one thing to talk about how Jesus has been so generous to us, offering us shelter in the midst of our crises. It is another thing to become that which we have received. Are we prepared to become like Christ by seeking to be a safe haven ourselves? In our baptism we are called to be Christ-like. So being people who can embrace and hold safe those who are struggling is, hopefully, on our list of high priorities. This might appear difficult and even dangerous, but being a place of refuge for those who need comfort need not be as risky as it sounds. It does not necessarily call us to open up our homes. But it asks us to open up our hearts. Even though our hearts may feel inadequate and conflicted, we can trust that Christ, dwelling deep within, can communicate His tenderness through us. All we have to do is trust in Him and allow some of our natural gifts of hospitality to be built upon by grace.

For many of us who live busy lives, we meet people every day who need a listening ear, a shoulder to cry on, or some gentle encouragement. Let us not be afraid to reflect the love of the Father by reaching out to them. Then we will show that we are truly His disciples as we embrace others in the way He did.

Peace,
Fr. Joe

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The premier poet of the English language, Geoffrey Chaucer, introduced one of his most beloved characters, the "Wife of Bath," by this telling remark: "Husbands at church door she had five." Four times widowed, she was setting off on a pilgrimage, notably without number five. The church door is a curious detail, pointing to the fourteenth-century wedding custom of marrying on the porch of the parish church. The goal was to give maximum publicity to the consent of the groom and bride, and so consent was moved from the bride's home to a public venue. The priest would stand in the doorway and begin by sprinkling the couple with holy water. He needed to make sure they weren't too closely related and give them some instruction. He would direct the groom to pay the bride's family a dowry, and then announce the monetary amounts to the interested passersby. Only then would the guests enter the church for the wedding Mass, during which the bride and groom would hold lighted candles. The gradual move from home to church and the shift from the bride's father to the priest's authority helped to protect the freedom of brides who weren't quite as confident as the Wife of Bath.

Dress Code for the Church

Please remember that during the summer, the need to think about proper dress is most important for the Church. Every restaurant requires proper dress. Should the Church not expect the same code? Short shorts, tank tops, bathing suits, or any dress that is suitable for the beach, is out of place in Church. Every person should dress to give due worship to God. Some people may disagree, but when we come into the presence of God and celebrate our communal worship every weekend, the way a person dresses will influence that style of behavior. Please give it your utmost attention. Thank you.

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

"For my yoke is easy, and my burden light." - Matthew 11:30
When we think of being good stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not "owners" of anything; we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion of what He has already given to us.

CATHOLIC SINGLE PARENT SUPPORT GROUPS

According to US Census data, 30% of children living in New Jersey currently live in a single parent household. Single Parenting is difficult, non-stop and often goes unappreciated. For many single parents, they are a provider, nurturer and disciplinarian. It can be overwhelming trying to carry out each of these roles. The Family Life Office has created and is offering a support group specific to the needs of single parents. Below is a list of parishes in the Archdiocese of Newark who offer this support group for single parents. If interested in attending, please call the phone number listed to register!

- Notre Dame RC Church, North Caldwell, 973-226-0979
- St. Mary of the Assumption (Spanish), Elizabeth, 908-352-5154
- St. John the Baptist, Jersey City, 201-653-8814
- St. Matthew, Ridgefield, 201-945-3500
