MISSION STATEMENT

□ Holy Family Catholic Church is a spiritually and socially active parish. Rooted in the Word of God and nourished by the Eucharist, we celebrate the life of our Lord Jesus Christ by proclaiming the Good News and providing spiritual growth, support and service with love. Founded by Italian immigrants a century ago, today our parish continues the tradition of extending a loving, caring and affirming welcome to all who join us as we Continue Our Journey of Faith.

□ La Chiesa Cattolica Santa Famiglia e' una parrocchia socialmente e spiritualmente attiva. Radicata nella Parola di Dio e nutrita dall'eucarestia, celebriamo la vita del nostro Signore Gesu' Cristo proclamando la buona novella e provvedendo crescita spirituale, supporto e servizio con amore. Fondata un secolo fa' da immigranti italiani, oggi, la nostra parrocchia continua la tradizione di estendere un amorevole, caro e riconoscente benvenuto a tutti coloro che con noi continuano e condividono il nostro cammino di fede.

□ Ang simbahang katoliko ng banal na pamilya ay isang masiglang parokya sa espirituwal at ugnayang panlipunan. Nakaugat sa salita ng diyos at pinalusog ng eukaristiya, ipanagdiriwang namin ang buhay ng ating panginoong hesukristo sa pagpapahayag ng mabuting balita at paguudulot ng paglago sa kabanalan, paggabay, at mapagmahal na paglilingkod. Itinatag ng mga dayuhang italiano may isang-daan taon na ang nakakalipas, ngayon ang aming parokya ay patuloy sa pag-ugit ng tradisyon ng mapag-aruga, mapagkalinga, at mapagkilang pagtanggap sa mga sumapi saamin habang patuloy sa paglalakbay sa panaampalataya.

7th Sunday in Easter B-2018

My brothers and sisters in the Lord!

Happy Mother's Day to all the moms, adoptive mothers, grandmothers, godmothers, and those who have been like a mother to us. We give thanks to God as we pray at all of our masses for our living moms as well as our deceased moms. We honor them for the gift of life they have given us and, most especially, for the nurturing love they share with us which is the legacy of their love that continues in each generation.

At the beginning of the Church's life, St. Peter stood before the assembled crowd of a hundred and twenty people, a number symbolic of the whole house of Israel and, by extension, of the whole human race. He stood up to address the human family. His first task was to heal and restore the twelve apostles, those foundation stones of the Church's existence. The twelve were especially chosen by the Lord to be the foundation of His Church, His family of followers. As parents are to children, so the apostles are to the rest of Christ's faithful.

This new Israel, this new people of God, is founded on the twelve who were the Lord's companions from the beginning, right up until the day He was taken from their sight. They had eaten and drunk with Him, such powerfully human experiences after His resurrection from the dead. Now they would be His witnesses to the whole world and to every generation that comes after. The faith that is preached is founded on this rock solid base of people who were there and who knew Him so well.

If we are to preach the love of God in this world, it is as well to have a firm foundation for such a story. The world is not impressed by idle dreams and fantasies, although it likes to indulge in such things. But the triumph of good over evil is an uncertain thing in this world and death itself looks pretty final. So it was that Jesus, at His last meal with His disciples before His suffering, prayed for them, and so for us, and He asked His Father to keep them "true to Your name," for it is this quality and this witness of life that will be the moving factor in causing God's love to grow in human lives. People who are true to God's name witness to goodness in a wicked world. They are witness to kindness in a cruel world. They are witness to a world sunk in despair. Poor Judas, who became disillusioned with Jesus, lived to regret his actions in betraying the Master, but he did not live long enough to be rescued from despair. In collaborating in the death of Jesus he felt that he had burnt all his boats. There was nothing left to live for. But hope springs eternal and the Lord is risen from the dead.

In our world today, the Lord offers us His grace, the grace to be true to His name in our own place and in our own circumstances. Our own life is a challenge. We are not going to be removed from the world, but to be protected from the evil one. Our witness of life is to be in touch with one another, to help restore one another, and to help into gathering unity the scattered children of God.

Peace,
Fr. Joe
